

Nominees for 2023-2024 Board of Deacons (2-year term)

Christopher Ho (Chinatown English) grew up in California and was baptized in high school. He met his wife, Sam, at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute where he studied Mechanical Engineering. He has been attending BCEC since 2018 where he currently serves on A/V team, PDAS, and leads a small group. Chris lives in Waltham and enjoys playing sports and getting meals with people.

Ida Kwong (Chinatown Cantonese) is an immigrant from Hong Kong. She was baptized and grew up in BCEC. She studied and worked in Boston, later God touched her return to Hong Kong China Graduate School of Theology and received Master of Christian Studies in Counseling. She currently serves in Chinatown Cantonese Sunday Service Committee and Chinese Youth Ministry as a youth counselor. She enjoys serving the Lord within the team setting. In the past she served as the chair of J1 fellowship committee, Sunday Service music team, and AWANA children's ministry. BCEC is her family in Christ. Outside of church, she is a case manager of elder services. She has been blessed to assist the elderly, care for the mental health population, and support caregivers in the community.

Winnie Lam-Wong (Chinatown Cantonese) was born in Hong Kong. She came to Massachusetts and pursued her college study in 1992 and was baptized at BCEC in 2003. She is blessed for the opportunity to serve along with brothers and sisters over the years in ministries including, Joshua 1 Fellowship, August Moon outreach, and Elim Fellowship committee. She also joined short-term mission trips in England and local Boston. Currently, she is part of the Chinatown children ministry and Cantonese Worship Service Committee. She enjoys going on road trips with her husband, Ben, and daughter, Larissa.

Vincent Lau (Newton English) is a Boston native and has been attending BCEC since the second grade. In experiencing God's unconditional love, as manifested through his youth counselors, Vince came to realize that nothing in the world compares to what a life of following Jesus Christ has to offer. He accepted Christ and was baptized at BCEC in 1988. Vince went away for college and spent a short period of time working in San Francisco; otherwise, he has been living in the Boston area and attending BCEC all these years. Vince was on the Board of Deacons over 20 years ago and started participating in youth ministry in 1997 first as a High School Sunday School teacher on the Chinatown Campus and then as a youth counselor on the Newton Campus. Outside of church, Vince is an immigration lawyer and manages an employment-immigration law firm. When he can, he loves to travel, run, and watch YouTube videos and Instagram reels.

Terri Mock (Newton English) has attended BCEC since 1980 where she became a Christian and was baptized. She and her husband Bill have four sons, Daniel, Timothy, Benjamin, and Stephen who grew up at BCEC. They are also grandparents to a granddaughter, Riley. Over the years, Terri has been blessed to serve in various ministry roles including as Branch college fellowship advisor, young adults fellowship committee, Sunday School teacher and department head, Junior Worship coordinator, Newton English women's fellowship, and small group leader. Terri has also served on missions trips to Jamaica, Crow Nation and Mexico. She has previously served on the Board of Deacons as Personnel Deacon. Terri works as a market strategy consultant to technology companies, and also serves on the boards of iSpecimen (ispecimen.com), Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center (bcnc.net), and The Boston Club (thebostonclub.com).

Timothy So (Chinatown Cantonese) has been attending BCEC as a member since 2012 when he and his family moved to Boston from Washington DC. During his time at BCEC, he has served in the worship team, Elim Fellowship Committee, and Chinatown Service Committee. He joined the Board of Deacons since 2021 and responded to God's calling to serve for the second term. Timothy accepted Christ as his personal savior when he was 10 and got baptized when he was 18. He served in various roles when he attended churches in Charlottesville, Fairfax, and Burke, Virginia. Timothy received his Bachelor of Science degree in Architecture at the University of Virginia and Master of Science degree in Real Estate Development at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He currently works in a real estate investment firm in Boston. Timothy lives in Lexington, MA with his wife, Joyce, and their children, Lyla (14), Karlan (12), and Skylar (9).

Siu Yu (Chinatown English) was born in Hong Kong. Even though he attended Christian schools and college there for years, he did not know Jesus as his personal Savior. By God's grace, he was able to come to this country for graduate study and became a born-again Christian while on campus. After obtaining his master's degrees, he worked in Arizona for 9 years before relocating to Massachusetts in 1989. He has been attending BCEC since then. God laid on his heart a burden of community outreach and it has become his passion. He has been using his God-given talents to serve as the Coordinator of the Community English Class ministry and an ESL and Citizenship teacher for the past 32 years. In the past, he also served as the BOD Treasurer for 3 terms. He is married to Susanna Yu. God has blessed them with two sons, Ivan and Jevon, and two grandchildren.

The following deacons were elected in 2022 and have one year remaining on their term:
Robert Huie, Peter Kwok, James Lam, David Lee, Billy Ng, Andy Te.
